

Psalm 30:1-5

Lord my God, I called to you for help, and you healed me.

You, Lord, brought me up from the realm of the dead;

you spared me from going down to the pit.

Psalm 30:1-5

Sing the praises of the Lord,
you His faithful people;
praise His holy name.

Weeping may last for the night,
but Joy comes in the morning.

Joy comes in the morning

DREAM!

John 20

¹ Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance.

{Mark 16:1-8}

“Go tell His disciples and Peter...”

{Mark 16:1-8}

John 20

² So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

John 20

3-4 So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

Guilt & Shame
always slow us down

John 20

⁵He (John) bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in and looked

Blepei (βλέπει)

:To look; to see.

John 20

6-7

Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus' head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen.

He saw

Theōreî (θεωρεῖ)

:To gaze on for the purpose of analyzing.

To contemplate.

John 20

8-10

Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) Then the disciples went back to where they were staying.

He saw

Eiden (εἶδεν)

:To see with the mind.

To perceive. To know.

To believe.

Jesus hadn't been taken.

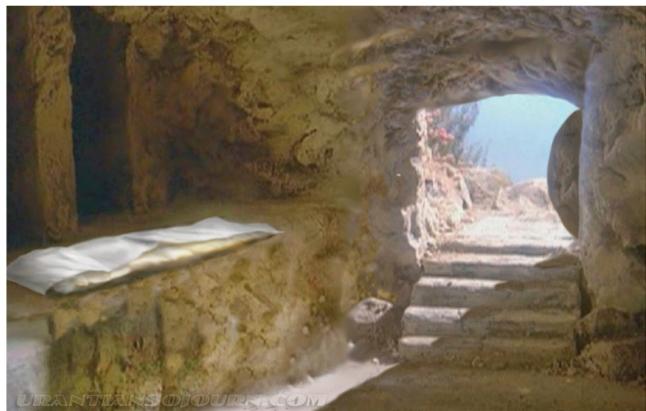

He had risen!

Blepei: To look.

Theōrei: To analyze.

Eiden: To believe.

Amazing Grace
how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost
but now I'm found
Was blind...

BUT NOW I SEE

"Mary."
