“But you, Bethlehem
Ephrathah, you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel whose origins are from of old, from ancient times.”

Phillips Brooks

Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity in Philadelphia

In December of 1865...
He visited Bethlehem

3 years later...

In December of 1868

O little town of Bethlehem

How still we see thee lie Above thy deep & dreamless sleep

The silent stars go by Yet in thy dark streets shineth

The Everlasting Light
The hopes & fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight

For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wondering love
O morning stars together Proclaim the holy birth
And praises sing to God the King
And Peace to men on earth

How silently, how silently
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem

Descend to us, we pray

Cast out our sin and enter in

Be born in us today

We hear the Christmas angels

The great glad tidings tell

O come to us, abide with us

Our Lord Emmanuel

Born in us

Luke 1:26-38

By faith we receive within us
Jesus Himself

Phillips Brooks understood something very profound.
Christmas isn't just about Jesus coming to Bethlehem 2,000 years ago.
Christmas is about Jesus coming to our hearts today.

When we have Jesus, we have LOVE
in us.

We were made to long for Love

Love came down from heaven as a baby—
born in a barn to young, frightened parents at the outskirts of society.

This Christmas through Jesus
we have Love

No ear may hear His coming,

But in this world of sin,

Where meek souls will receive him still,

The dear Christ enters in.
